OUR NEW YORK LETTER

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT]

NEW YORK October 1 1867

EDITOR OREGONIAN

After three months revelings at favorite resorts to which the shoddy fashionables and the petroleum affluents betake themselves from the glaring summer heat of the city—rambling, lounging hunting, loafing fishing, dozing quizzing driving flirting bowling bathing, eating, drinking et cetera et cetera—we are back once more upon Broadway July at Coney Island, Rockaway and Long Branch, bathing in the surf, driving on the beach tanning in the sun and sea air August at Newport Cape Cod and the White Mountains—reveling among fashions fat clams and New England's abundance of good things September at Lake George Saratoga and Niagara—shaking off with diamonds, rices mineral water, and the last greenback to the hacker such is life's short measures at the fashionable watering places where New Yorkers most do congregate

Mrs Flint and the little Flints satisfied with the summer surfeit of sand, sea air music, mineral waters and croquets, and as the swallows homeward fly so we return to New York here to peek ur flirts and resume our irregular, semi-occasional correspondence for the readers of the OREGONIAN

Broadway is in the height of its glory Fall trade has set in and store keepers are rivaling each other in the brilliancy and extent of their displays Strangers from all parts of the country are here on business, and hotels are full at their extravagant prices of $4 to $6 per day Guests are stowed in the basements and in the attics and turned away for grumbling

This is what New Yorkers call the opening season Wholesale merchants are opening boxes and cases of new goods by the cargo retailers are opening all their new lots, milliners and mantua makers are opening the new fall fashions, theatres are opening with new plays, new operas new scenes and new spectacles, churches are opening to receive their returned fashionable attendants the pastors who left their flocks during the annual catarrhal and bronchial difficulty season to enjoy themselves in moral sports and quiet watering places, training themselves for another winters contest with Satan and his city imps are opening their new pulpit artillery, with heaviest ammunition and longest range guns It will require the highest skill and energy of all our clergymen to combat the cloven hoofed champion this winter During all the heated term while churches have been closed and our worthy parsons have been away, the arch enemy has been at work in terrible earnest pipelaying for the coming campaign He has been stirring up the muscle of the metropolis bringing out every week some new light or heavy weight champion of the prize ring

The dull season has been most terribly relieved this year by a series of cruel murders barbarous infanticides fratricides suicides highway robberies rapes arsons burglaries thefts seductions incests and every form of villainy. Here in this christian country, in the age that professes to be the most enlightened, in this post meridian of the glorious nineteenth century, there seems to be a very carnival of crime—brutality outdoing itself Eighteen hundred years ago, there used to be a dozen fishermen on Galilee, who went forth on missions to the whole world their divine Master saying to these apostles, "Take nothing for your journey neither staves, nor scrip neither bread nor money neither have two coats apiece" The preachers in our modern fashionable churches sadly neglect both the letter and the spirit of this command now-a-days Fine linen and broad cloth, a head done up in the latest style of fashionable hair dressers, a handsome salary fine horses and a splendid establishment are characteristics of many of the apostles of the present day Our churches are so many vast mirrors of fashion where latest styles of bonnets, velvet cloaks and silk dresses are shown off in the pews and audiences are largely made up of people who go to see and to be seen, and to tell of some new thing

Suppose one of these earnest devoted old fishermen should revisit this earth in propria persona, and attend one of the fashionable church establishments of this or any other city in our land, don't you believe the wrath of Moses, when he came down from the mountain with the commandments and found the Israelites dancing around a golden calf would be a mild spectacle compared with the wrath of the Evangelist?

Broadway just now is an admirable field for the student of human nature The immense wealth the ragged poverty the startling enterprise the military grandeur the commercial power the fashion frivolity and vice of the great metropolis are epitomized on Broadway What a stream of humanity is pouring its incessant tide along Here among ten thousand passers by we may note some of the great men and notable characters of the land—Astor, J C Fremont, Henry Ward Beecher Senator Sumner General Burnside, Wendell Phillips, Horace Greeley John Morrissey, George Francis Train, August Belmont, Robert Dale Owen, Rev Dr Tyng Dr Chapin Theodore Tilton John C Heenan Rev Dr Dix, Bonner of the Ledger Forrest, the actor A T Stewart, Commodore Vanderbilt and in this vast throng they go by unheeded and unknown by almost everyone just as any common man

Here the begrimmed denizens of the Five Points flaunt their rags side by side with Fifth Avenue exquisites mingling and blending the many distinct smells of the gutter with the richer perfumes of the boudoir and the toilet

The nobodies the would be somebodies notabilities respectabilities, men about town (who live on their wits) ladies of the beau monde (brilliant with silks, laces point applique India shawls and diamonds) ladies of the demi monde (brilliant with paste jewelry and brocade drapery), manikins, misses just entering on the world of fashion fresh from the air of the boarding school full blown and faded beauties past the zenith of their charms (the cosmetics on whose cheeks pale their ineffectual fires before the fresher and natural bloom of a younger generation) All these we meet in abundance every afternoon strolling on Broadway

A millionaire just from his counting room up town, and homeward bound solemnly meditating on stocks steamships and the fluctuations of the day's market side by side with an elegantly dressed swell, who sleeps on a wretched pallet somewhere in the notable neighborhood of Green or Crosby streets who breakfasted at eleven on the earnings of some poor girl that leads a life of shame and who twirls his cane, strokes his mustache picks his teeth and does his pièce plastique on the steps of a first class hotel All this is life on Broadway The great artery of the city now daily wears its gala attire and never looked to greater advantage

A cynical poet, who has recently transferred his merry summer season of folly, fashion festivity and dissipation at the watering places to his Sea and Town, thus celebrates the occasion in pungent verse

Saratoga is empty and Newport looks blank
The syrens have fled from Long Branch and Cape May [illegible] in Neptune's tank
And the [illegible] are back on Broadway
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
At the [illegible] on in Town

The ladies who fasted from all [illegible] so long
[illegible]
Hunt styles [illegible] the long
And will soon [illegible] the spoils of the chase
[illegible]
[illegible] Brown
It will [illegible] beautiful [illegible]
[illegible] the Season in Town

We observe many Oregonians sojourning in this city Hon F N Cooke and wife, Hon J S Smith and family who recently returned from their European tour all in excellent state of preservation after their rapid travels through England Scotland Ireland Belgium Prussia Switzerland and Austria a month's sight seeing at the Paris Exposition escaping the brigands and imprisonment into the Pope's or Garibaldi's body guard and two crossing the Atlantic

Mr Smith, after pleasantly disposing his family in some suburban village of New Jersey where his children may enjoy the advantages of a school will shortly return to the Pacific Mr and Mrs Cooke prolong their stay with a few months travel through the Western and Southern States, returning to Salem in early spring time

George A Edes and W K Leveridge (two old Salemites, though not very old men, whose Falstaffian proportions give evidence that they have enjoyed [illegible] in the fat of the land) and their families are among the passengers of the [illegible] steamer bound for Webfoot.

G W Vaughn and H D Green still keep up the Portland telegraph and talk of returning in a small [illegible] Gen Taylor, who has been here as an Oregon representative in attendance upon the Annual National Convention of Odd Fellows will shortly return to Portland with his family who at present are staying in Cincinnati Ohio

Of other Oregonians we also met on Broadway Hon Benj Stark, who makes his home in the beautiful village of New London Conn Gov Curry who is still talking up gold and silver mines and an Overland railroad to the Great Columbia valley as two of the best things in your country [illegible] Brooke who is stopping with Gen Ingalls and who declares he would not exchange his land with [illegible] paved Front street and [illegible] for New York and its [illegible] Broadway and Wall street A M Starr who has just come up from his Georgia plantation where he has been superintending [illegible] J M Keeler who has established in this city an Oregon Commission Agency for purchase and sale of all sorts of goods wares and merchandise especially for Webfoot customers [illegible] Logan of the Dalles who has been appointed to the Naval School of Annapolis Maryland

Besides these there are a score or more of other citizens of your State, who are occasionally dropping in at [illegible] the Oregon Headquarters on Liberty street, or who may be seen about the Hotels at regular intervals at church on Sunday, and at the theatres or Minstrels in the evening Indeed it is a matter worthy of note, that all Oregonians in this city with few exceptions are good and regular attendants upon meals church and theatre These three institutions they patronize liberally [illegible] They dabble in stocks drive to the races or drink whisky

What has befallen the Idaho mining interests? There come no glorious reports of the tons of gold and silver bullion which in 1864 and 1865 were promised to our New York capitalists by the scores of Idaho miners who came here with feet to sell Certain gentlemen who have invested a few hundred thousand would be glad to receive a small dividend Has the rich [illegible] District dried up? Has the famous [illegible] ledge become a myth? Has the wonderful [illegible] petered out? Report says that much of the duly certified valuable ledges which a Mr Wilson Waddingham had sold to a wealthy company in New York for a large sum turns out to be in somewhat the condition as was proven the title of a certain individual to all the lands he beheld from a high mountain, and offered to grant for the trifle of an honor He didn't own a single foot of them Mr W was a short time ago living sumptuously at one of our first class hotels and occupied an elegant suite of rooms for offices down among the gold and stock brokers He has suddenly departed without leaving a souvenir behind him

New York and Owyhee Company's stock, which soon after the purchase from Bradford last spring of the controlling interest in the Poorman mine was currently rated at 80 to 90 cents on the dollar has for the past three months been going down down It was sold last week at 25 cents and to day we have heard it offered at 10 cents

How can this company afford to pay $35,000 per annum in salaries to a few officers and employees at this rate Or are some of the large stockholders and knowing ones trying a freezing out process? These are samples of the general condition of Idaho Mining Company matters in this city Ex uno disce omnes

One of the latest sensational items in this city, is the announcement of the fact that Mrs Lincoln widow of the late President has been compelled to dispose of some of her personal effects in order to support herself at Chicago where she is now living. She came to this city on the 19th of September it seems under the assumed name of Mrs Clark for the express purpose of placing the articles in the hands of a well known commission agent and diamond broker Mr Wm H Brady, No 609 Broadway From all accounts it seems that the late Mr Lincoln not only saved no money while he was President but that his family lived beyond his income [illegible] it will be remembered, appropriated $20,000 to Mrs Lincoln A bill was introduced to appropriate for his wife and family the full sum that he would have received had he lived to finish his second term of office to wit $100,000 but in the absence of certain members [illegible] the State of Illinois it resulted only one year's salary [illegible] Of this sum $3,000 went [illegible] to discharge certain old debts leaving $22,000 which, with the house and lot in Springfield [illegible] was all the property that fell to Mrs Lincoln except the gifts of friends made while she was in a position to command and secure official positions under her husband the President The house in Springfield rents for $300 a year and Mrs Lincoln's total income has been less than $2,000 a year Such being the state of her finances she felt obliged to part with a portion of her wardrobe

A few days after [illegible] Mrs Lincoln placed in Mr Brady's hands the following articles with the value attached to each

	Cost
1 black centre camel's hair shawl long	$1 500
1 white centre camel's hair shawl long	1 200
1 white centre [illegible] shawl square	400
1 black centre camel's hair shawl square	350
1 red centre camel's hair shawl square	100
[illegible] all shawls [illegible]	60
1 white Paisley shawl long	75
1 white [illegible] shawl square	50
3 superfine point black lace shawls $1 [illegible]	$500 $300
2 superfine point black lace shawls	$50 $40
1 white point lace [illegible]	2,000
1 white point lace [illegible]	4 000
1 white point lace [illegible]	150
1 white lace parasol cover	250
1 white lace handkerchief	80
1 Russian sable [illegible]	1,500
1 Russian [illegible]	1 200

Also a large number of [illegible] laces [illegible] diamonds rings, &c

The correspondence between Mrs Lincoln and Mr Brady [illegible] the reasons for her actions in this [illegible] and her letters in regard to the same have just been made public and of course excite great interest and much comment from the public press

Among the letters are the following viz

CHICAGO September 2 1867

"W H Brady, Esq [illegible] I write that reporters are after you concerning my goods deposited with you which [illegible] consideration of my urgent wants, I ask you [illegible] I am compelled to relinquish [illegible] that there is a fear that these newsmen will seize upon this painful circumstance [illegible] by your having these articles placed in your hands [illegible] the Republican party particularly In the cause of liberty and universal freedom my beloved husband's precious life was sacrificed nor [illegible] anything to injure [illegible] the [illegible] men for whom my [illegible] husband [illegible] so much unhesitatingly deprived [illegible] of all means of support and left me in a pitiless condition The necessities of life are upon me uncertain and imperative and I am scarcely [illegible] different from the lot my loving and devoted husband would have [illegible] struggle for myself I am compelled to pursue the only course left me immediately within the next week to sell [illegible] Wednesday October [illegible] please [illegible] after advertising very largely [illegible] they are my goods Very respectfully

MRS A LINCOLN

September 25

W H Brady, Esq I have reflected on your remarks and have concluded to leave everything to your good judgment and excellent sense My [illegible] great [illegible] have made me partially reckless but as my feelings and pecuniary comfort were never regarded or even recognized in the midst of my overwhelming bereavement [illegible] I am pressed [illegible] at start [illegible] for means of subsistence I [illegible] opportunity [illegible]

Being assured that all you do will be appropriately executed and in a manner that will not startle me very greatly and excite as little comment as possible again I shall leave all in your hands I am passing through a very painful ordeal which the country in remembrance of my noble and elevated husband should have spared me

"I remain with great respect very truly

MRS LINCOLN"

P S—As you mention that my goods have been valued at $24,000 I will be willing to make a reduction of $8,000 and relinquish them for $16,000, in five twenties—nothing less If this is not accomplished, I will continue to advertise largely until every article is sold I must have means to live at least in a medium comfortable state

Late telegraphic dispatches from the Pacific coast give the following curious item Lieut. Small and his men must be a glorious set of fellows for an equatic hand to hand stand up fight

SERIOUS INDIAN FIGHT IN OREGON

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28—A dispatch from Oregon states that Lieut. Small, 1st U S Cavalry fought and defeated a band of Snake Indians near Lake Albert the same band which recently defeated Gen Crook's friendly Indians After the first charge the Snakes made for the swamps, but the troops dismounted and fought them waist deep in water Twenty six of the warriors, with their chiefs were killed, and 15 taken prisoners None of the soldiers were hurt

An Independent Party

It is useless for Republican politicians to complain of independent journals The trouble is, they have an independent party to deal with. It is not strange that superficial statesmen should judge it easy to control this party It kept a proud unbroken front during four years of war It was dismayed at no disaster It took no step backward Its policy, like its march, was progressive It lost nothing, even in numbers. It attracted from the first, all in whom blood was thicker than water To these it added the cautious, the interested, all who could discern the mighty interest at stake, and all in whom patriotism silenced partisanship and prejudice It welded these materials together in the fire of its enthusiasm, till the whole seemed one and undivided, without seam or separation, and almost incapable of motion except as one But this was no mass which would passively lend its momentum to whoever could set it in motion. The members of this party were bound together by a common consciousness of noble aims, by the sympathy of those who have shared suffering and sacrifice in a good cause Such a fellowship elevates the thoughts and aims of men None are less manageable for base ends than those who have fought together for noble ones Therefore, politicians should be slow [illegible] how they ask a party which has just come out of a struggle for country, for freedom, for human rights, to demean itself to personal objects. It is taking away all that ever bound the party together It is abstracting the principle of cohesion from the mass, insuring instant dissolution. So, indeed, many thought the Republican party would dissolve at the end of the war, because all the issues it had struggled for had been gained, and upon new ones there would be difference of opinion and new combinations. There was danger of it Some of its members showed strong symptoms of reviving regard for the old Democratic fleshpots They would have gone back to their former party had its leaders had the good sense to accept the situation. But the alliance of "Democracy" with secessionists still continued. The question still was—Republican or Rebel The old necessity for unity continued to exist. The Democratic" party seems to have been providentially preserved, in order that the combination of good and true men in the Republican party might still be kept up. They are still bound together by common anxieties for the nation's welfare, by mutual aspirations for its prosperous future, by common distrust and dislike of the unprincipled men who are organizing a party North and South to undo the work already done. But, as has been said, this unity is still due to a high class of motives Those who propose low aims to the Republican party are sure to be repulsed and rejected by it, for it cannot yet afford to have its unity destroyed. It does not yet recognize its great work as accomplished Have there not been lessons enough on this point? Did not this noble party throw over its most trusted and favorite leaders, without a moment's hesitation, when those leaders went to making Presidents and parties, instead of insuring permanent justice and peace? To say nothing of Johnson, who, with genuine "Democratic" faith, regarded the party as followers of course, where to-day are Seward, Dix, Weed and the whole category of Philadelphia Conventionists? These men were not unskillful riders, yet they failed to manage the Union party with bit and spur Nor did they succeed in their effort to destroy that party when they found they could not control it The component members of the party recognized the occasion for unity and the defection to Johnson was smaller in number even than the offices at his command

It is evident that the Republican organization is made up largely of thinking men They not only require a good object, but they are discerning enough to recognize the true one in any emergency Those politicians who have simply personal purposes to serve had better betake themselves to the "Democratic" party That is notoriously a unit under all circumstances The mass of its voters are proud to admit that they have no questions to ask except "What is the regular Democratic ticket." That is the party to which politicians and office seekers should attach themselves. A modern writer of note says there are three stages discernible in the progress of public opinion on any subject, viz First, the unanimity of the ignorant, second, the difference of the inquiring third, the unanimity of the wise. It is needless to say that the "Democracy" always illustrates the first of these. But, except on great and momentous issues, when imminence of danger admits of no doubt, the Republican party has always manifested the dangerous (to office seekers) difference of the inquiring " None but wise and unselfish leaders can expect unanimity from it; and not even they, unless they clearly show their aims to be good and their measures beneficial Neither has it any more respect for its "journals" than for its leaders Certain New York newspapers, at least, which had some reason to suppose they could lead the party, will not soon forget the tide that went out a year ago so quickly that they were almost left stranded In fact the Republican party recognizes neither leaders nor organs. The former are its hands, the latter its ears and eyes But the masses themselves constitute the inquiring" brain, and their difference of opinion have to be consulted and compromised before a common course of action can be agreed upon This is both the weakness and the strength of the party It makes it powerful for good objects, but very inefficient for bad ones It constitutes it a genuine party of the people, who should therefore trust it It unfits the party for the purposes of politicians, let them note this fact and act accordingly —Sacramento Union

EFFECT OF THE PRESIDENT'S COURSE.—A Washington dispatch to the Boston Advertiser says The Secretary of the Congressional Executive Committee has late information from all parts of the South The first effect of the President's late course was to dampen the ardor of Republicans, seriously to retard the work of reconstruction and greatly to embolden the rebels The reception which Johnson's acts have met at the North has caused a marked reaction, and matters are now looking better Alabama is considered good for a 50,000 Union majority by the best posted men in various parts of the State In North Carolina nearly all differences between Republicans have been settled, and the disaffection of Goodloe and his clique, it is thought will produce no appreciable trouble Florida is considered as certain for the Union ticket while affairs in Mississippi and Arkansas looks hopeful, and are becoming more so daily. The Union party in Virginia has from the first been in an unsettled condition but matters are now improving, and, while the contest will be close the State is considered safe Throughout the whole Shenandoah valley the people seem convinced that Johnson means trouble It is ascertained by well informed and trustworthy parties that an ex Confederate General of considerable note has of late mingled generally with the rebels of that section in discussing plans for organization in certain contingencies

HORACE GREELEY —New York letter writers tell of Horace Greeley that upon the arrival in this country of Mrs Yelverton with whom he had been in correspondence Greeley sent her a note requesting an interview and simply signed himself H G No answer coming he wrote again with no better success and in a fit of indignant curiosity he jerked his hat on the back of his head and rushed for the Albemarle Hotel The lady was delighted to receive the editor of the Tribune, and mutual explanations followed She had mistaken the simple initials, H G, for the figures 109 and didn't know what to make of it all Persons familiar with Greeley's signature can very well understand how such a mistake could occur

Johnsonian Echoes

The Washington Union, one of the personal organs of the acting President, publishes the following

The education of the public mind up to that standard wherefrom the transition to monarchy is easy, has been in successful operation for several years The election of a sectional President the blockading of Southern ports the raising of men and money to "put down the rebellion," as it was called the suppression of free speech, free press, and the habeas corpus and the trial by jury, the passage and enforcement of conscription laws, hordes of Provost Marshals running loose over the land the people ground down by internal [illegible], the creating of an aristocracy founded up on Government bonds, the National Bank system, military Commissions, illegal arrests, social persecution, etc, open violations of the Constitution, mutilations of dead bodies of unfortunate victims of tyranny, and finally the military system of reconstruction, whereby ten States of the Union were wiped out of the Union and erected into five absolute despotisms, with five absolute monarchies placed over them, the limit of whose authority was solely their own caprices—these have been the steps, the successive gradations which were to prepare the American mind for a change from republicanism to monarchy, to absolute despotism

The paper which publishes this has the confidence of Andrew Johnson, and its utterances like those of the National Intelligencer, are understood throughout the country to be merely the echo of his views. It often undertakes to tell what its master will do in case an attempt is made to impeach him. That its fulminations are inspired by him is a probability which may hardly be doubted. That he has sometimes felt called upon to disown them only confirms the supposition that its general course is dictated by himself For if he had no connection with the papers which are understood to be his organs, why should he pay any [illegible] to what they have to say These organs are merely his servitors, appointed to give voice to his bluster and tone to his thunder. In this view of things, the above extract [illegible] an interesting one to read, as it very [illegible] reveals the motives on which Andrew Johnson has acted since he betrayed the loyal [illegible] of the country and [illegible] deep traitors for his [illegible]

By the [illegible] of Johnson's organ the people of the loyal States are [illegible] of a design to subvert [illegible] liberty and [illegible] a despotism over the whole country. The [illegible] come in for no share of this censure. That the [illegible] of the North [illegible] have [illegible] right to vote for a man of their choice for President, was an usurpation [illegible]. Their repudiation of the dictation of the pro-slavery oligarchy in the election of [illegible] was the first step toward a monarchy. For [illegible] to vote for whom they [illegible] was the beginning of despotism. The blockading of [illegible] ports, and the employment of [illegible] the constitutional authority of the [illegible] Government throughout the whole [illegible] even more [illegible] and intolerable [illegible] to prevent Northern traitors from [illegible] their Southern confederates, [illegible] oppressive; and every effort which was [illegible] to [illegible] the establishment of the [illegible] that any party which is defeated in election may [illegible] to acquiesce in the result and [illegible] against it, was part of the same [illegible] to [illegible] the country to a despotism The man who [illegible] for the idea of popular government, [illegible] government by a majority of the [illegible] by the Constitution [illegible] those who rebelled [illegible] established the [illegible] that a defeated party is not bound to abide by [illegible] was [illegible] required to [illegible] for the monarchical idea that the [illegible] shall rule; and the [illegible] attorney," [illegible] who were so [illegible] as to loan the [illegible] now gets its [illegible] Our Southern [illegible], it will be observed, have done nothing but what is worthy of the highest praise. They [illegible] in resisting the despotic idea of [illegible] government, of which the North [illegible] the [illegible] region. This is the position [illegible] has now [illegible]. Is it too much [illegible] that the only reason why he did not join the [illegible] was [illegible] those who knew best [illegible] him?

An Ex-[illegible].—While about fifty ex soldiers have been [illegible] from the Quartermaster department, Gen. Allen, who spoke such a bitter [illegible] from the balcony of the Continental at the time of the Philadelphia Convention, [illegible] has just been [illegible] in the Interior Department.

[illegible] we get following :

On [illegible] morning, September 21st, John [illegible], a farmer on Whidby Island, near [illegible] Pass, shortly after leaving his [illegible] in his canoe toward the [illegible] of S. Ure, noticed a seal rise very near the boat, and in an effort to raise his gun, which was loaded with buckshot, it went off, [illegible] the contents in his hip, and producing a [illegible], from which he died the following [illegible] was born near Magnolia, [illegible] emigrated to Oregon nearly twenty years ago; has resided on Puget Sound since 1854 and [illegible] the W. T. Volunteers during the Indian troubles of 1855. He was considered by all a very industrious, hard-working man. Deceased was about 50 years of age, and leaves two [illegible] in Pine Island, Minnesota; a son in Port [illegible]; a brother in California, and some [illegible] in Canada.

The Port Townsend paper publishes the subjoined

A sad accident occurred at Kings camp, on the east side of Whidby Island, on the 12th inst. An old man named McDonald was engaged, with others, in bringing out a rolling tier, when one of the logs, suddenly starting, rolled over him, completely severing one arm and his head, leaving only a portion of the under jaw attached to the body. McDonald was about 53 years of age His remains were conveyed to Port Madison, where they were interred by the Masonic fraternity

Garibaldi's Platform.—In the Peace Congress at Geneva, Garibaldi introduced a platform as follows

1. All nations are sisters.
2. War between them is forbidden.
3. All disputes between them shall be settled by a Congress.
4. The members of the Congress shall be appointed by Democratic societies of the nations,
5. Each nation shall have but one representative.
6. The Papacy, being the most pernicious, shall be declared overthrown.
7. The religion of God is adopted by the Congress and each of its members shall be obliged to propagate it on the face of the earth.
8. The priesthood of revelations and of ignorance must be replaced by the priesthood of science and intelligence
9. The religion of God shall be propagated by education, and honest and republican Governments shall be established.

McDougall.—The late tipsy and brilliant Senator McDougall was the first man to 'detect Andrew Johnson's drunkenness on the 4th of March, 1865, the day of his disgraceful exhibition at his inauguration, McDougall, himself well in liquor, [illegible] and a few minutes to the idiotic harangue, and, turning to an eminent Senator who sat near him, [illegible] in a husky voice: "I say—you, when I—talk in that way—you think—I'm drunk!"

Two Fools.—Of what value is the Attorney General's opinion of the constitutionality of a law of Congress, when it is known that if Stanbery does not write up Johnson's policy he, Johnson, can find a man who will! A short time ago the President was asked what he intended to do with Jerry Black, when he replied that Black would be kept in reserve for use in case Stanbery failed to perform his duties properly.

Vienna, Oct 24 —The Reichsrath has passed a secular marriage bill legalizing marriages [illegible] civil magistrates

London Oct 25 —Late despatches from Rome say the party of action attempted an insurrection on Tuesday A mine was placed directly under the barracks of the Papal troops and was fired at a given signal The attempt proved to be a decided failure Nobody was killed but many persons were injured and the building badly shattered The outbreak was soon suppressed and the city became quiet

Paris, Oct 20 —All the official journals concur in the declaration that Italy within twenty four hours must announce its determination either to crush the insurrectionary movement or to faithfully execute the provisions of the September convention that France will decide upon peace or war accordingly

Paris Oct 21 —The Moniteur announces that the expedition for Italy is countermanded because of the king of Italy and the Pope's observance of the September treaty

Paris, Oct 24 —The latest accounts represent the new Italian Cabinet as incomplete Gen Cialdini [illegible] hesitating to accept a portfolio. Ratazzi is still acting as prime Minister

The Emperor of Austria is the guest of Napoleon

Paris, Oct 24 —The Emperor of Austria arrived at Lancy yesterday and expected to reach Paris to night on a visit to Napoleon. He passed through Baden where he had a short interview with the king of Prussia The conversation was of a most friendly character

Marseilles, Oct 20 —The Turkish Grand Vizier met a deputation of Cretan insurgents in the presence of the Consuls of all the foreign powers The insurgents insist on the cession of the island to Greece

New York Oct 21 —The Herald's Florence special says on the 10th that the situation is still embarrassing and critical The Italian troops along the front have been reinforced and are trying to prevent the insurgents from crossing All Italy is excited over the French war preparations Reports state that a fierce battle occurred on Thursday and the Pope's troops recaptured the town of Tivoli The Garibaldians suffered heavily

St Petersburg Oct 21 —The treaty for the sale of Alaska has been ratified for the Russian government

Dublin Oct 21 —The informer Reilly was shot and badly wounded Several policemen were recently shot at, but none hit

The trial of prominent alleged Fenians will occur before a special Commissioner Nov 24 It is said that the Washington Government will provide for the defence of Nagles and Moran

Florence, Oct 20.—A petition signed by 2,000 citizens of Rome has been presented to the Pope, praying for his consent to the occupation of Rome by the national troops

Here is a story from life in Paris Adele D—, aged twenty six, was found dead in her lodgings yesterday, in the Rue Esquirol Near her lay the lifeless body of her little boy, aged two years Abandoned and plunged in profound misery, she had recourse to suicide by charcoal Near the child lay a paper, on which the following words were written "Poor little friend, come with me out of this world, I will not leave you here to be unhappy as your mother has been"

A cultivator was seen by a party of Nashville negroes, when one said

"A man can just sit on dat ting and ride while he's plowing"

"Golly," said another, "de rascals was too sharp to think of dat fore de niggers was sot free."

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—We clip the subjoined items from the Enterprise of Saturday. We are pained to learn of the sudden death of Mr John Killin, father of Benton Killin, Esq., of this city, who died at his residence on Butte Creek, in this county, on Wednesday night last. He was an old resident of this county, and was loved and respected for his many virtues by all who knew him. We sincerely sympathize with his stricken family in this sad bereavement.... In the vicinity of this city, the common large black species of bear have of late become very troublesome. One farmer has lost some of the best of his orchard trees, by Mr Bruin's work at gathering the fruit. He seems to take special delight in tearing the branches as well as robbing the tree. The Register and Receiver of the Land Office at this city, have received notification to supply the new Land Office at La Grande. ....The chief thoroughfare of this city has swarmed again this week daily, with heavy wheat laden teams bound for Portland, and return laden with merchandise. ... It is expected that a course of lectures will be given in this city, during the ensuing winter season, by the very best talent of the State, under the auspices of Oregon Lodge No 3, I. O. O. F., the proceeds of which will go to benefit the building of the Lodge. We have before stated, and it is now a fact well known, that the Odd Fellows have purchased one of the best lots on Main street, upon which they propose commencing next year the construction of a splendid brick edifice, for a hall and other uses .....The Clackamas Base Ball Club, of this city, have received a circular from the Pioneer Club of Portland, requesting this club to designate two persons as delegates, who, together with a like number from each of the several clubs throughout the State, will meet in convention at Portland on Friday, the 21st day of February, 1868, for the purpose of organizing an association of base ball players, for the State of Oregon. In this country within the past ten years, the game of base ball has assumed a position of so much importance that it is universally acknowledged to be the game of America and, the circular says, "it being emphatically an American game, you, no less than ourselves, desire that it shall ever maintain that position of dignity and importance already attained, and to which it is so justly entitled." Hence, in order that Oregon may have State representation in the National Association, this movement is made. Our boys will of course respond freely. We presume the Highland and Tumwater clubs of this city have received like circulars.

FROM THE SILETZ RESERVATION.—From a private letter dated Siletz Reservation, Oct. 18th, we copy the following extracts:

"Hon. Simpson, Agent, and J S Copeland, have just returned from an Indian-catching expedition down the coast, as far as Crescent City. They brought up thirty Indians who belong to this place. Among the number are the same devils who [illegible] Agent Collins, last August, and after beating him almost to death went back again to their hiding places. Simpson, after capturing them, had them placed on board the schooner Mist at the mouth of Rogue river and conveyed them to Yaquina Bay, where they were landed to-day. D— went down to-day and brought them up to this place. He carried his 'Henry' with him, but they gave him no opportunity to shoot ......The schooner Ann Eliza, from San Francisco, arrived to-day at Yaquina for a cargo of lumber and oysters. She will sail again within three or four days.. ...The Yaquina Bay country presents quite a brisk appearance at the present time and bids fair to become a place of some importance at no distant day. A great many fish are being caught at the mouth of the bay. One of the company, on last Saturday caught one thousand pounds of salmon at one haul of the seine......D— is still following the vocation of [illegible] the young Indian how to shoot." The scholars learn well and evince a great desire to make "white [illegible]" of themselves; but the novelty of the thing soon wears off, and but few are benefited by the knowledge they gain at school. "Old Mortality" is marching through this Reservation with gigantic strides and outstretched arms and gathering in his cold embrace many of the "mighty warriors and dusky maidens." The descendants, sons and daughters of the once "noble red man" are rapidly passing to the hunting grounds and class [illegible] the spirit land.

PASSENGERS FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Oriflamme, Chas. Thorn, Commander, sailed for San Francisco at 6 A. M. yesterday, with the following list of passengers: H W Williams, B W Parks, A N Gill, Wm Waldo, Jules Raymond, J C Clark, J G Kalech and wife and child, Wm White, W W Norris, Ed [illegible] B Mulcahy, Mrs J S N Kellogg, Mrs Ann [illegible] J W Allen, wife and three children, Ed Carteron, wife and daughter, N Cramer, H Swiner, J B Owen, G P Oalot, Wm Wagner, R C Beck, J B Miller, G Stokes, R M [illegible], wife and five children, Dr J S Craig, G H [illegible], G M Hill, Thos Graham, Geo Boggs, F Kirk, J O V[illegible], wife and three children, S G Skidmore, B Bewdell, G W Traver, H W Hyman, St Clair E Kilbourne, M Arons, G Carew, A B Elfelt, J T Dowling, Miss Anna Shaw, Miss Gussie Hitchcock, Mrs Frank Smith and two children, F A Schade, W T Patterson, F W Patterson, Chas Stoltz, Peter Fisher, Gus Sena, L Foss, S A Oglesby, W H Oglesby, Mrs S [illegible], C C Bow, A Dow, Mrs J W Shaw and two children, J Batt, L T Schulz, A J Hembree, Wm Hall, J R Porter, P H O'Brein, Chas Moore, W H Pricott, J Lawrence, S Hembree, wife and two children, A W Niles, D C Felton, J S Jagoeth, H Barnes, A [illegible], L Hoyt, C W Carr, W M Knight, J Bailey, S Bowser, E K Walsh, Jno Ellis, Rob't Devine, Jno Regan, D McCreary, J P [illegible], Col West (W F & Co's [illegible]), and 98 in steerage.

[illegible] John Doe was arrested yesterday on a charge of larceny—stealing five chickens.

A man named Smith is arrested and will be tried this [illegible] the Recorder, on a charge of being drunk and [illegible]—breaking crockery and furniture.

[illegible] Soule and —— Brown were arrested Saturday night for beating a shoemaker named Derby. The latter tells the story that the two men followed him from the theater, and while he was on his way home, fell upon him, knocked him down and beat him. Derby is terribly [illegible]. The parties, it seems, have an old grudge between them. Soule and Brown will have an examination this morning, if Derby be able to appear as a witness.

Chas Higgins, accused of stealing a horse some time since, was arrested and brought back here by Mr. Rothwell, deputy marshal. He will have an examination to-day before the Recorder.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT AT CHAMBERS.—The case of Bennett vs. Bennett was disposed of on Saturday. On the defendant's motion to dismiss for want of jurisdiction the court decided against the defendant and in effect that the [illegible] corpus was properly issued. On the main issue, as to the rightful custody of the child, the court decided in favor of the plaintiff, Mrs. Susan A. Bennett. The defendant has made application to Judge Shattuck for a writ of [illegible] to bring the late petitioner and child before the State court for the purpose of determining to whom the custody of the child belongs. The counsel for Mr. Bennett all along, denied the authority of the United States court to issue the writ of habeas corpus in such a case, and insisted that the controversy must go to the State courts; hence the application to Judge Shattuck for the writ.

DEATHS.—On Saturday morning, Mr Thos G Robinson, an old citizen of this city, died very suddenly. We learn that he arose apparently well, was out a short time and returned to his house, shortly after which, Mrs. Robinson found him in an almost lifeless condition. Before assistance could be called, he ceased to breathe. His funeral, yesterday, was numerously attended.

Saturday afternoon, a young man named Paul McCarty, who was on his way, in a carriage, to the steamer Oriflamme, died suddenly, in the carriage, near the ferry landing at East Portland. He had been ill a long time, as we are told, and was about to try the benefit of a trip to California.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Justice B Trainor, on Saturday, called a jury of inquest upon the body of Jas. Long, supposed to have been drowned, Friday evening at East Portland. The jury, consisting of J. H. Frpsh, F H Pursell, D. C. Moyes, P. Johns, J L Douglas and W A [illegible], after hearing the evidence returned for a verdict that, "the [illegible] came to his death by accidental drowning in the Willamette river on the 25th day of October, between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock P. M."

FREIGHT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The Oriflamme took away yesterday, 10,123 quarter sacks flour, 203 half sacks flour, 540 boxes apples; 186 half-barrels dried apples, 909 sacks wheat, 111 sacks potatoes, 30 bales bacon, 11 [illegible] bacon, 49 boxes eggs, 29 rolls leather, 26 barrels beef, 18 barrels ashes, 13 half barrels pork, 7 coops chickens, 1 bale furs, 5 cases tallow, 1 keg butter, 91 kegs [illegible].

NAVIGATION.—Capt. Baughman informs us that on Saturday the river had risen several inches, and it was expected that the Monday's boat for Salem would be able to come out of the basin with her up-river freight. But little greater rise will be necessary to enable the boat to make regular trips without detention, to and from the basin.

A CHALLENGE.—Saturday evening the Spartans resolved to offer a challenge to the Pioneers' first nine, to play a game on Tuesday. The Pioneers will hold a special meeting this evening, the probable object of which is to consider the matter of accepting the challenge.

THE TANNERS.—A letter from Mr Tanner, of the Tanner Troupe, which performed here last spring, announces that he and Miss Soledad will soon be here from Olympia. We think it is their intention to appear with the minstrels now performing here.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—The steamer Alert brought down, on Saturday, 7 bales and 1 case woolen goods and 5,600 qr sks flour. The latter was put on board the steamship Oriflamme, for San Francisco.

A PRISONER KILLED.—It is reported here that a soldier named Brostenheim who had been arrested at the Dalles for desertion, attempted to escape from his guard on Friday night and was shot dead.

MASONIC.—A deputation of members of the Masonic order chartered the steamer Commodore Perry on Saturday, and went to St. Helens on some mission connected with the order.

RECORDER'S COURT.—On Saturday, Wm. Brown was tried before the Recorder on a charge of assault and battery upon W. H. Moore, and was fined $25 and costs.

PIONEERS.—A special meeting of the Pioneer B. B. C. is called for this (Monday) evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

SIGNED THE BOND.—Harman Bros., in order to get their large stock from aboard the steamer Oriflamme, signed the bond under protest, and are to-day opening out their stock of Clothing on corner of Front and Morrison St.

The Proprietor of the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public in general, that from this date, and during the oyster season, he will keep his establishment open at night until 2 o'clock A. M., and will serve Oysters and Suppers in every style.

LETTERS FROM THE INTERIOR OF THE STATE.

(FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT.)

Oct. 23, 1867.

FRUIT AND FRUIT TREES.

The fruit crop of this year has been enormous. Every tree seems to have been loaded to its utmost capacity. From the Southern limits of Oregon to the Northern boundary of Washington Territory, the land abounds in fruit. That grown upon the uncultivated orchards is rather small on account of the drought; but upon those well cultivated, it is large and very fine. It is so very abundant, and the prices so small, that farmers are indifferent about gathering even their best winter apples, not over one third of which are yet taken from the trees. Thousands of bushels will doubtless freeze and rot in the orchards. Many of the farmers are drying all the fruit they can, hoping to turn it to some profit in that way. Others are feeding it to their hogs. I saw at Mr. M Miller's Station, in Clackamas county, an excellent plan for cooking apples and potatoes for hog feed. He had a large tight box or vat built over a furnace, in which he can cook a great many bushels at one time, by the hot steam. He says that apples and potatoes with a little grain, fattens hogs very fast.

Unless the orchards are replenished very soon with new trees, however, we will not long complain of a superabundance of fruit. It is fearful to see how rapidly the fruit trees (apples, especially) are dying out in all parts of the State. I see many orchards that but a few years ago were the pride of the State, and fortunes to their owners, now but wrecks of what they once were. Many of the trees are dead, others dying, and the fern, weeds and brush are about to smother out the remainder. Apple trees seem to be very short-lived in this climate, and there is great difference of opinion in regard to the best manner of treatment to increase their longevity. Some think they do best and live longer without cultivation, while others are of the adverse opinion, and think cultivation best, which is doubtless true. I have now seen the greater number of orchards in Oregon and Washington, and I am quite well convinced by actual observation, that good cultivation is the best mode, not only to produce good crops of large, handsome and highly flavored fruit, but also to prolong the life of the trees. The richest land and deepest soil is the best for orchards, and trees die soonest on low wet lands. Not more than one-third of the orchards in the State are now cultivated. One fifth, if not more of the apple trees of the State are dead. Some orchards are almost entirely gone; others have not more than one fourth, one half, or one third of the trees living. At least one fourth of the trees that are alive are injured or dying. At the present rate of decrease in orchards, it will only be six or seven years until Oregon will not produce fruit enough to supply the home consumption. Any one who travels through the State with his eyes open, can see that such is bound to be the result unless means are immediately adopted to prevent it. The lives of many of the orchards may be prolonged by careful pruning and culture. But with the best attention, the present stock of trees will soon become insufficient to supply the demand. New trees will have to be planted and they are yet to be grown. There are almost no nurseries in the State—they have nearly all been allowed to run down—so it is a good time for somebody to go into the nursery business. But whoever does so, should be thoroughly experienced fruit-growers, persons who are capable of profiting by the experience of the past few years of fruit growing in Oregon. It is now pretty well known what sorts are best adapted to this climate and soil, as well as what are favorites in market. There are but very few new trees being planted, almost none, after you get away a short distance from the great fruit markets. Pear and cherry trees live longer than apple. But of cherries, there are not half enough in the State to supply the home demand at reasonable rates. Not one half of the people of Oregon are able to get as much of this delicious fruit as they can use. Why don't you plant more cherry trees.

"THE MISSOURI GIANT" was at the Roanoke fair last week. Says the Citizen:

His name is Thurston; he is 37 years old, weighs 230 pounds, and towers to the immense height of seven feet, seven and a half inches. During the war he was in the Confederate service, belonging a portion of the time to Parsons' division of Price's forces, and is said to be the identical, traditionary individual who Van Dorn, at the battle of Pea Ridge, ordered "to get down off that stump." He was born and raised not far from Versailles, in Morgan county, but his present residence is in St. Louis county, about 16 miles from the city.

A negro boy was driving a mule in Jamaica, when the animal suddenly stopped and refused to budge. "Won't you go, eh? Feel grand, do you? I suppose you forgot your fadder was a jackass?"

FROM JUDGE MARQUAM.—I have used Henley's Royal Balsam for a bad cough, and I find it a splendid medicine. I have recommended it to a great many. They speak very highly of the medicine, and I freely recommend it to the public.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

It is a real pleasure to us to speak favorably of this article, known almost universally to be a good and safe remedy for burns and other pains of the body. It is valuable not only for colds in the winter, but for various summer complaints, and should be in every family. The casualty which demands it may come unawares.—Christian Advocate.

PAIN KILLER, taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar, if desired, or made into a syrup with molasses. For a Cough and Bronchitis, a few drops on sugar, eaten, will be more effective than anything else. For Sore Throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain Killer and water and the relief is immediate and cure positive.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior product for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very [illegible] though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to P[illegible] Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The American Excursionists and the Czar

Chas C Duncan, Master of the steamer Quaker City now on an excursion through European waters, having some 100 American men and women on board wrote from Constantinople August 30th, to Secretary of State Seward, saying

"Sir It is deemed right and proper that I should report to you the very great kindness and courtesy with which the excursion party of American citizens, by the steamship Quaker City have been received by the Emperor and Empress of Russia, by the Imperial family the Grand Duke Michael and the members of his family, as well as by the Governor General of Southern Russia all other officials and all private individuals with whom we have met at the various posts visited by us in Southern Russia. Scarcely was the anchor of our ship dropped in Sebastopol harbor, when a messenger from the Commandant placed the Government dock yard, men and material at our disposal for any repairs we might need Quarantine and passport regulations were waived in our favor, and a free access to the town and fortifications as well as facilities for observations immediately given All port duties were remitted We received the same hospitable treatment at Odessa

At Yalta the Summer resort of the Emperor, honors and attentions unusual and unexpected were bestowed upon us. We had been but a few hours at the Bay when a message borne by the Governor General informed us that the Emperor and Empress would be glad to see our whole party at the Palace on the next day, considerately adding that the reception would be informal and no embarrassment in the matter of dress need be felt. Government boats and private carriages were placed at our disposal for the journey, the Palace being three miles distant The Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Emperor met us on our way and escorted us to the Palace The Emperor and Empress met us on the grounds and received us with unreserved kindness

The Emperor conversed freely with all who approached him, while the Empress permitted me to present to her one of the ladies of our party Half an hour was spent in this way, and the Emperor and Empress conducted the party over the Palace An hour, delightful to us, and evidently gratifying to their Majesties, was spent here, and we were placed in carriages and sent a mile further on to the Palace of the Grand Duke Michael Here we were received by the Grand Duke and Duchess with the utmost kindness and cordiality Refreshments were produced, and while discussing them, the Emperor called, bringing his children with him After a lengthened interview, gratifying, we believe, to every one present we left and returned to the ship—the Emperor's boats, and in some cases his carriages, serving for our conveyance

During the remainder of our brief stay at Yalta we received on board the Governor-General and his family, Prince Dalgouriki of the Emperor's staff, General Todlebes, besides many gentlemen and ladies of rank and position. Words and acts expressed on their behalf the kindest feelings towards us, and through us to the American Government and people, and I but speak the sentiments of every one on board when I say that nothing could exceed the [illegible] Russia, except that our Government should see fit to make known to the Government of the Emperor its appreciation of their kindly acts to American citizens."

WHY IS IT THAT POTATOES YIELD LESS THAN FORMERLY?—A correspondent, in a late number of your paper, wishes to be told why the yield of potatoes is less than formerly. The reason is not difficult to say. It exists in a law of nature, embracing animal as well as vegetable organism. Both have excretory as well as secretory functions All throw off effete matter which is harmful to the secretory [illegible] for their development. If many crops [illegible], of the same vegetable, are grown, the effete matter increases in proportion to the nutritive, and finally overcomes all efforts at successful cultivation. The food decreases and the [illegible] with every crop If manure, [illegible] or special, is added to the soil, it increases the food, but does not necessarily diminish the [illegible] matter. One hundred years ago [illegible] were but little [illegible] and most [illegible] were left [illegible] for their cultivation Then and long afterwards, 400 bushels was not an extraordinary yield. Now the increased taste for its use, and the great augmentation of our people, in number and ability to pay, have made it necessary that a [illegible] breadth of land should be used for its growth. In consequence of this, much of the land has been worked to a degree that invites [illegible] to feed on its substance, to take advantage of its weakened organism, [illegible] the rot, so called, and other ills. Mother earth is a good mother, but like her sex generally, she has a taste for variety in other adornments. She will change her dress, even the most durable of her fabrics, her forests. [illegible] in composition, and finally thrown off altogether in [illegible]. These again have their round of varieties, and in a long course of years give place to other plants. Mother earth will have her way, and those of us, her children, [illegible] of her bounties.—Cor. in Country Gentleman

THE [illegible] GIRL is medium in height, some [illegible], pale, intellectual face; light hair, blue eyes, [illegible] slight squint, a little, rather [illegible] in dress; slight traces of ink on her right second finger, blue as to her stockings and large as to her [illegible]. Of physical beauty she is no [illegible], but of intellectual [illegible]. Gather a dandelion by the roadside, she will recognize it as the Leontodon taraxacum, and discourse [illegible] its fructification by winged [illegible]. She will [illegible] to you the relative voices of the [illegible] Boston, [illegible] will analyze [illegible] Mendelssohn's [illegible] will learnedly [illegible] differences [illegible] rights of [illegible] But [illegible] and [illegible] ever [illegible] or [illegible] to the care of [illegible]. The [illegible] She is cold, hard, dry and juiceless—an intellectual mummy. Gail Hamilton is the type of a Boston woman at maturity. Abby Kelly Foster was a type of the Boston girl gone to seed. If Gail Hamilton lives as long as did Abby Kelly, she will carry a blue cotton umbrella, wear a Lowell calico and make speeches on the wrongs of woman and the [illegible] of the tyrant man. If the Boston girl ever marries, she gives birth either to a dictionary or to a melancholy looking young intellect, who is fed exclusively on vegetables, and at the age of six has mastered logarithms and fossiliferous paleontology, falls into the Frog Pond a few times dies when he is eight years of age, and sleeps beneath a [illegible] epitaph and the Leontodon taraxacum.—Cor Chicago Tribune

ABOUT "PERIQUE" TOBACCO.—Some time before the war a peculiar kind of Louisiana tobacco called "Perique", became somewhat known to connoisseurs, and was valued for its extraordinary purity, richness and flavor. Its appearance was singular Put up in compact plugs about fourteen inches long and two and a half inches in diameter, it had a black color and aromatic odor peculiar to itself During the war the great demand for tobacco from the soldiers of both armies in the Southwest gave a new importance to this tobacco, the price of which went up to $2 50 per pound Those who had once smoked "Perique" would be satisfied with no other, and it was freely bartered by Confederate [illegible] whenever the proximity of picket lines or flags of truce favored trading with our soldiers The name arose in this way Sixty years ago a Spaniard named Pierre Chenet began the culture of this sort of tobacco in Louisiana, which obtained in a few years a local reputation The neighbors gave to the tobacco the Spanish nickname of its cultivator—which is "perique" The mode of culture and manufacture remains unchanged since [illegible] Chenet's time In July the leaves are cut and hung up in sheds When dried they are stemmed and twisted into half pound plugs. These plugs are placed into boxes holding about forty pounds each, and are pressed by means of a long lever For the first week the plugs are taken out daily and reworked, and less frequently for three weeks afterward The tobacco is then ready for working into "carrots" or plugs which are covered with canvas and tightly lashed with cords from end to end After several months they are fit for market. The tobacco although so sweet and aromatic, is entirely pure, and owes its superior qualities to the natural excellence of the variety to the richness of the soil, and the peculiar climate.—New York Evening Post, Sept. 27th

MISS INGELOW —Peter Bayne, who lives in London and knows what is going on there says a "pleasant whisper" has reached his ear to the effect that Miss Ingelow is about to be married to Robert Browning. Miss Ingelow is by common consent, regarded as the greatest living poetess and Browning stands next to Tennyson in general estimation among our poets His first wife was the greatest poetess that ever used the English language, and, from Browning's choice of a second partner we may conclude that experience had taught him that a great poetess may be a good wife"

Sketches at Niagara

To see the Falls and objects around them will cost about fifteen dollars The cataract, in all its human surroundings, is an irritating swindle from beginning to end Between cabmen, guides waiters and beggars with board at the highest notch the American side is intolerable enough but among the Canadians there are only the penitentiary birds A yellow skinned woman at the so called museum near Table Rock stands ready to soap you and then sell your hair You are carried against your will into oil skin breeches let down a ladder that sets all your nerves and prayers going, drenched with spray driven up the ladder again, penned in a dressing room and then bled out of three dollars by a negro man whom I conceive to be the husband of the white woman of [illegible] The most appropriate architecture for the Canada side of the Falls would be a penitentiary Such a godless, soulless miserable lot of convicts never paraded to the gallows as go at large under the smoke of Niagara Gamblers and counterfeiters are numerous on both sides of the river, there being good facilities for the refuse of either Government to rob or cheat and escape beyond jurisdiction

The competing railways that cross the river have filled the banks with sign boards and the railroad sharper is a conspicuous element in every foreground A few people of wealth take cottages here in the summer a shabby scattering of poor restaurants is noticeable for the use of the people who would see Niagara between two trains The [illegible] Englishman is a frequent portrait at the Falls, with his brown whiskers, gray eyes, spotted dogs on his cuffs and collars, wild necktie, a rose in his coat front, shoes that are of the shape of rolling pins and a frowsy coat full of pocket flaps I met one of these noble persons during my visit He had a red book which he consulted often, and seemed to be looking at a crow on a tree top just past the rapids.

"I beg pardon, I'm sure he said "but is that a 'awk or beagle yonder My guide book, look here you know, beg pardon dah say has this passage 'The Indians reside in such numbers around Niagara that they have been able to preserve the aboriginal name whereas, the Americans with their well known want of refinement, would wish to call the cataract Saw Mill Falls 'Awks and beagles, as well as panthers (also called by those singular people painters) bears and buffaloes may be seen here From the latter circumstance an insignificant hamlet on the American side takes its name!' Now, beg pardon!" said the Englishman, as I aven't seen a 'awk or beagle or a buffalo since I left Montreal, I thought that object yonder might be one —Correspondence of the Boston Post

A "POOR WHITE" VOTER —As an offset to the story of the ignorant colored voter who did not know his age or comprehend an oath, the Griffith (Ga) Union tells how one of the poor whites passed his examination by the registering board

Some days ago it was our prerogative to register, and while in the office of the registry a party of white men from the country came in and exercised the privilege One of them, a rather green looking fellow, in answer to the question "What is your name?" answered, "Dick" Some time was spent by the officer before a correct understanding was arrived at "Where were you born at?" "In the house, I reckon." Here another investigation followed.

"How old are you?"

"A year older n Peg "

"But how many years old are you? When were you born?"

"Do no' sir, I'se old enough to vote, do, cause I voted fur Jeff Davis"

"Can you read or write?"

"What do I want 'a read an' write for? Da ole man would 'a walloped me of he ever kotch me a readin'"

"Where do you live?"

"I lives wid de old man "

"Where does he live?"

"He lives way out yonder, furder 'en you ever seed "

One of his companions answered the question, when he was directed to hold up his right hand and in response to the oath said "What's all that about, Mister?" The officer explained the matter and the unblemished citizen made his mark and departed

STANDS
ROYAL BALSAM.
AS A
FAMILY MEDICINE
IT IS WELL AND FAVORABLY KNOWN,
RELIEVING THOUSANDS
FROM COUGHS, COLDS,
Bronchitis,
ASTHMA, CROUP, HOARSENESS,
WHOOPING COUGH,
Influenza,
AND
OF THE
Chest and Lungs.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time and wherever used is highly recommended never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction but on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife She had been afflicted with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief Without relief was [illegible] feared for the worst In her present condition The cough appeared to be worse at night she could get no rest—when Mr Randall of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam all other remedies having failed I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked Its effect was truly miraculous as the cure was effectual hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, as it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit and I might say magical effect is not more in use My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house

Vancouver March 1, 1867 H COCHRAN

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill July 15 186[illegible]

DEAR DR HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you what your Royal Balsam has done for me For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose, Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been Yours truly

WILLIAM DOTY

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children Two of them had a very bad cough and cold I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning and it was all that was needed to cure them I was astonished at not hearing them cough again [illegible] I find if you give it in larger dose it will make the children throw up in an instant and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy as it acts like magic on children What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease had I had at the time one of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now I shall always recommend it to all my friends for I consider it a blessing [illegible]

Yours truly SOPHIA M HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale But Dr Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all In fact we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and I really [illegible] of no use to keep any other During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of [illegible] cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma We acknowledge it a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction

BELL & PARKER

From W. F. Barber.

DR HENLEY—Dear Sir I had the Asthma for the last thirty years and [illegible] tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good until I [illegible] to try some of your Royal Balsam [illegible] afflicted with the same disease [illegible] I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since and I really believe that I am perfectly cured and I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack and I have no hesitation to recommend it to all afflicted with the same disease

Yours truly
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

DEAR DR HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and [illegible] that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine I was afflicted with what is called Bronchitis for the last [illegible] years [illegible] value of the Royal Balsam [illegible] country that it will [illegible] better medicine in existence for Bronchitis [illegible] the Royal Balsam and I [illegible] recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial

I remain yours truly,

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In it is horrid alternative thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his [illegible] study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an [illegible] unlimited extent, producing, with [illegible] certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of m[illegible], hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats [illegible] and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain [illegible] relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions Irregularities Whites Falling of the Womb Tumors all Urinary Diseases Nervous Debility Painful or Difficult Menstruation Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind Have no delicacy in calling no difference what your troubles may be The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves

Persons calling at Dr Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicine, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR J F GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 252.

Fountain of Life!
THE
GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science The present is an epoch of this kind and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public in connection with the theory on which it is based is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

SCROFULA AND KING'S EVIL!

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time in the arcana of Medical Science which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA AND KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial and not been found wanting

Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world and eradicate the disease entirely from the system or no charge made —[illegible] ide that they will secure him the pay when they are cured
